Preventative Strategies

Central to the curriculum for Personal, Social, Health and Relationships Education is our aim to effectively equip children with the skills, personal qualities and attributes needed to become independent, to develop positive relationships and learn about conflict resolution, make decisions and take responsibility for themselves and their actions. Through the planned curriculum for PSHE and RSE, children are helped to acquire a range of skills that contribute towards emotional health and well-being, including:

- Being an effective and successful learner
- Making and sustaining friendships
- Dealing with and resolving conflict effectively and fairly
- Being able to solve problems with others and alone
- Managing strong feelings such as frustration, anger and anxiety
- Recovering from setbacks and persisting in the face of difficulties • Working and playing cooperatively
- Competing fairly and losing with dignity and respect for competitors
- Recognising and standing up for your rights and the rights of others

- Understanding and valuing the differences between people and respecting the right of others to have beliefs and values different from your own.
- Recognising that families are different and that some children have greater responsibilities at home

Responding to bullying

- The following steps may be taken when dealing with all incidents of bullying reported to the school:
 - If bullying is suspected or reported, the incident will be dealt with immediately by the member of staff who has been approached or witnessed the concern.
 - The school will provide appropriate support for the person being bullied – making sure they are not at risk of immediate harm and will involve them in any decision making, as appropriate.
 - A designated member of the Senior Leadership team will interview all parties involved.
 - The DSL will be informed of all bullying issues where there are safeguarding concerns.
 - The school will speak with and inform other staff members, where appropriate.
 - The school will ensure parents/carers are kept informed about the concern and action taken, as appropriate and in line with child protection and confidentiality policies.
 - Sanctions, as identified within the school behaviour policy, and support will be implemented in consultation with all parties concerned.
 - If necessary, other agencies may be consulted or involved, such as the police, if a criminal offence has been committed, or other local services including early help or children’s social care, if a child is felt to be at risk of significant harm.
 - Where the bullying of or by pupils takes place off school site or outside of normal school hours (including cyberbullying), the school will ensure that the concern is fully investigated. If required, the DSL will collaborate with other schools. Appropriate action will be taken, including providing support and implementing sanctions in school in accordance with this policy and the school’s behaviour policy.
 - A clear and precise account of bullying incidents will be recorded by the school in accordance with existing procedures.

This will include recording appropriate details regarding decisions and action taken.

Further opportunities to enhance and reinforce our ethos in which positive behaviour is promoted, and bullying considered unacceptable are provided through:

- Assemblies and collective worship
- National Anti-Bullying Week
- All subjects of the curriculum
- Adult role models
- Extra-curricular activities

- Co-operative Group Work: Children work together on shared tasks, involving co-operation and individual accountability. When this is integrated into normal classroom practice, pupils can explore issues and controversies by considering different points of view; be more tolerant of others and more willing to listen; trust those of the opposite gender and those from other ethnic groups and become better integrated into the peer group.

How do we deal with bullying?

Firstly, through class discussions and assembly themes we endeavour to empower the children in a variety of ways:

- Turn, say to the person who is doing something they don't like, "STOP, I don't like it!" — Ask the person to leave you alone, whilst you are in the presence of friends.
- Tell an adult in school. If you feel uneasy about doing this on your own, ask a friend to help you or use your class 'Thought's Box'.
- If the bullying continues, tell someone again.
- If you see someone being bullied on the playground, go up and ask them if they are all right. Ask them if they want any help.
- If you don't want to approach them yourself, tell an adult that you think a child needs their help.
- All staff share the responsibility to promote the anti-bullying policy.

When a case of teasing/ unkindness etc. is reported to an adult, the adult needs to decide, by gathering all the facts and speaking to people who may have seen the incident, whether it can be dealt with through behaviour consequences or whether it is more serious and needs referring to the phase leaders or the Head. Parents who are concerned that their child might be being bullied, or who suspect that their child may be the perpetrator of bullying, are encouraged to contact their child's class teacher immediately. Their concerns will be taken seriously and good practice applied. Each incidence of bullying will be investigated and dealt with based on the individual circumstances but the main processes set out below will be followed.

1. Young person tells you they are being bullied or incident is observed
2. Record incident following school procedures
3. Ensure that an appropriate adult meets with the target of the bullying.
4. Listen to other young people who may have observed the incident.
5. Ensure that appropriate adult meets with the young person alleged to be responsible.
6. If there is evidence or admission of bullying, issue appropriate sanctions following anti-bullying policy and behaviour policy. As we prefer to use a restorative approach provide opportunity for young person to reflect and consider how they might make amends.
7. If no bullying has taken place, or there is insufficient evidence, consider what further action is needed to reassure and meet the needs of those concerned.
8. Inform the target of outcomes and actions taken. Provide on-going support
9. Inform the young person responsible of outcomes and actions taken. Provide on-going support
10. Contact the parent/carers of the target of the bullying. Inform them of the incident and actions taken by the school.

11. Contact the parent/carers of the young person responsible for the bullying. Inform them of the incident and the consequences put into place by the school.
12. Consider what additional input is required in terms of: proactive work to address prejudice or promote diversity, work with class or year group, assembly, individual or group work with young people concerned, referral to outside agencies etc.
13. Monitor the situation and review with all parties to ensure the bullying has stopped.
14. Review how successful your approach has been. What additional preventative measures need to be in place?

Cyberbullying

- When responding to cyberbullying concerns, the school will:
 - Act as soon as an incident has been reported or identified.
 - Provide appropriate support for the person who has been cyberbullied and work with the person who has carried out the bullying to ensure that it does not happen again.

 - Take all available steps where possible to identify the person responsible.

This may include:

- looking at use of the school systems;
- identifying and interviewing possible witnesses;
- contacting the service provider and the police, if necessary.
- Work with the individuals and online service providers to prevent the incident from spreading and assist in removing offensive or upsetting material from circulation.

This may include:

- Support reports to a service provider to remove content if those involved are unable to be identified or if those involved refuse to or are unable to delete content.
- Confiscating and searching pupils' electronic devices, such as mobile phones, in accordance with the law and the school searching and confiscation policy.
- Ensure that sanctions are applied to the person responsible for the cyberbullying; the school will take steps to change the attitude and behaviour of the bully, as well as ensuring access to any additional help that they may need.
- Inform the police if a criminal offence has been committed.
- Provide information to staff and pupils regarding steps they can take to protect themselves online.

 - Sanctioning, in line with school behaviour/discipline policy; this may include official warnings, detentions, removal of privileges (including online access when encountering cyberbullying concerns), and fixed-term or permanent exclusions.
 - Where necessary, working with the wider community and local/national organisations to provide further or specialist advice and guidance; this may include involvement from the Police or referrals to Early Help, Specialist Children's Services, or the Children and Young People's Mental Health Service (CYPMHS).

 - Use a variety of techniques to resolve the issues between those who bully, and those who have been bullied.

Education and Training

- The school community will:
