

Curiosity

At Croft school, we aspire to create curious learners who not only ask questions but actively seek out the answers. We instil our pupils with a strong desire to know or learn something new and build on their existing knowledge. Our Christian values of Creative and Justice underpin our value of Curiosity.

"Curiosity is the engine of achievement."

Sir Ken Robinson

Respect

Having self-respect by feeling good about who you are, the choices you make and the impact you have on others. Showing respect to others by interacting in a way that showing you care and value them. Our Christian values of Thankful and Peace underpin our value of Respect.

“Respect is one of the greatest expressions of love.”

Miguel Angel Ruiz

Opportunity.

We want our children to know what opportunities are out there and to have the self-belief to create their own opportunities by trying the limitless opportunities that are available to them. The Christian values of Hope and Responsibility underpins our value of Opportunity

“The more you read, the more things you will know. The more you learn, the more places you’ll go.”

Dr Seuss

Future

Broad horizons and high aspirations are imperative for our children. We nurture the love of learning so they can aim for their personal best. Our Christian values of Wisdom and Endurance underpins our value of Future.

“The best way to predict the future is to make it.”

Abraham Lincoln

Togetherness

We encourage all children to feel included as a team with their class peers, the school and village community. Togetherness gives us the chance to build on our strengths, shared skills and create a sense of belonging. We are united through friendship, experiences and a sense of belonging. We care, value and support each other, recognising that everyone has a responsibility to trust, support and enable the success of others. Our Christian values of Courage and Friendship underpins our value of Togetherness.

“If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together.”
